

Sweet Loving Lady

So many ways I lose, I ain't crying the blues,
You've come to town to make my day.
Have you heard the news, you make me feel confused,
Come sit with me and act like you're my muse.
Oh, oh,

You're my sweet lovin' lady, I ain't talking shady,
You're my sweet lovin' lady, you're my sweet little girl.
Oh!

So many ways I choose, Shining lights expose your views,
Oh, Oh, I love to think of only you, Oh, oh,
It's coming up to noon, there's really nothing, nothing to do,
Come drink some wine and lie here in the sun.
Oh, oh,

You're my sweet lovin' lady, I'm not talking shady, no, no, no,
You're my sweet lovin' lady, you're my sweet little girl.

I don't want to see you cry, It makes me wanna die,
Come in my arms and take me in with you.
You're as warm as pie, I raise you up so high,
Throw away your thoughts to live without me, oh.
If beauty had a price, I'd listen to advice,
Together we make one and one is three.
Hey, hey, hey.

You're my sweet lovin' lady, whoa, whoa, talking shady, no, no, no,
You're my sweet lovin' lady, whoa, whoa, my sweet little girl,
Whoa, whoa, whoa,

My little lady
My little girl

You're my sweet lovin' lady, whoa, whoa, my sweet little girl, oh, oh,
You're my sweet lovin' lady, whoa, whoa, my sweet little girl,
Whoa, whoa, whoa,

My little lady.
